INFO. [REDACTED]

1. The M. I. R. U. S. (Movimento Italiano Rurale di Unione Speciale; Italian Rural Movement for Special Union), under the leadership of Enrico Insabato, president of the "Mediterranean Center" in Rome, was recently established in Italy as the Italian section of the "Green International."
2. Although M. I. R. U. S. is presently organized merely as a "movement," its transformation to a real political party, along the lines of the small and moderate parties of Central and Eastern Europe, such as those of Vladko Macek and Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, is under consideration.
3. The new movement has called a World Rural Congress for September 1950 to be held in Rome and Assisi, to which the various rural parties belonging to the "Green International" have been invited. M. I. R. U. S. hopes to form a "World Rural Parliament" and to organize all the rural population of the world.
